Sept. 9, 2019 We depart this morning from Louisburg at 6:00 A.M. from Farmers Food's, 6:30 A.M. at Henderson from Roses Norlina Rd. We will be stopping at hardee's for breakfast this morning. Our next stop today, will be at Thomas Jefferson's Monticello. Thomas Jefferson called his Monticello his "essay in architecture." The author of the Declaration of Independence and third president of the United States studied the buildings of ancient Rome and began building his house in 1768 atop the "Little Mountain" where he had played as a boy. Our tour time is 10:00 A.M. after the guided house tour, you will have time to tour the gardens and plantation community. Next, we will be going to the birthplace of the Walton's TV show in Schuyler Va. to visit the Walton's Mountain Museum. Featuring a short film, recreated sets and memorabilia. There is a new replica of the Walton's Home we will tour, after the museum. Next, we will depart for home stopping for dinner on the way. We should arrive home around 9:00 P.M.
